

National Commission on Social Security
Washington, DC 20218

(202) 376-2622

March 12, 1981

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

I have the honor of transmitting the final report of the National Commission on Social Security as required by Section 361 of the Social Security Amendments of 1977 (Public Law 95-216).

The National Commission on Social Security is an independent, bipartisan panel of private citizens which was charged by law to conduct a two-year review and investigation of all aspects of Social Security and related programs, and prepare a report for your consideration.

Copies of this report have been sent to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President of the Senate.

Respectfully,

Milton Gwartzman
Chairman

CONTENTS

Chapter 1: Overview	1
Chapter 2: Summary of Major Recommendations	21
Chapter 3: Alternatives to Social Security	35
Chapter 4: Financing Social Security & Medicare	52
Chapter 5: Retirement Age	120
Chapter 6: Retirement Earnings Test	140
Chapter 7: Social Security Benefit Structure	153
Chapter 8: Coverage of Social Security	168
Chapter 9: Disability Programs	193
Chapter 10: Social Security Appeals.....-	217
Chapter 11: Women and Social Security.....	225
Chapter 12: Supplemental Security Income.....	245
Chapter 13: Medicare and Medicaid.....	257
Chapter 14: Administration of the Social Security Programs	299
Chapter 15: Consumer Price Index for the Elderly.....	313
Chapter 16: Other Recommendations for Changes in Social Security.....	322
Chapter 17: Costs of the Commission's Recommendations.....	328
Chapter 18: Dissenting and Supplementary Statements.....	330
Chapter 19: Glossary.....	365
Chapter 20: Appendix
Appendix A: Summary of Hart Survey.....	375
Appendix B: Common Misconceptions.....	380
Appendix C: Rodgers' Retirement Age Proposal.	391
Appendix D: Gender-Based Distinctions.....	413