

Elizabeth Clark, MSN, RN, NCSN, FNASN

Nursing Education and Practice Specialist

National Association of School Nurses

Elizabeth Clark has over 25 years of experience as a school nurse and in school health services administration. She is currently employed by the National Association of School Nurses (NASN) as a Nursing Education and Practice Specialist. She is an adjunct faculty at the University of Northern Colorado in public health nursing. Elizabeth has been the project lead for various grants and professional learning programs at the NASN.

Elizabeth has a master's degree in nursing care of children from the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Denver, Colorado.